Explanatory Note

This Amendment No. 1 to Current Report on Form 8-K (“Amendment No. 1”) is being filed to amend the Current Report on Form 8-K filed by Genesis Park Acquisition Corp. with the Securities and Exchange Commission on August 25, 2021 (the “Original 8-K”). The Original 8-K incorrectly identified the Extraordinary General Meeting date as September 2, 2021 in the first paragraph of Item 8.01 and under the heading “Extraordinary General Meeting Information.” The date of the Extraordinary General Meeting is September 1, 2021. This Amendment No. 1 to the Original 8-K is filed solely to correct the date of the Extraordinary General Meeting in the above referenced sections of the Original 8-K. No other changes have been made to the Original 8-K.

Item 8.01 Other Events.

As previously disclosed, on March 25, 2021, Genesis Park Acquisition Corp., a Cayman Islands exempted company (“GPAC”), Shepard Merger Sub Corporation, a Delaware corporation and direct, wholly owned subsidiary of GPAC (“Merger Sub”), Cosmos Intermediate LLC, a Delaware limited liability company and direct, wholly owned subsidiary of Holdings (“Cosmos”) and Redwire, LLC, a Delaware limited liability company (“Holdings”), entered into an agreement and plan of merger (the “Merger Agreement”), pursuant to which, promptly following the de-registration of GPAC as an exempted company in the Cayman Islands and the continuation and domestication of GPAC as a corporation in the State of Delaware with the name “Redwire Corporation” (“New Redwire”), (i) Merger Sub will be merged with and into Cosmos (the “First Merger”), with Cosmos being the surviving entity in the First Merger and (ii) immediately following the First Merger, Cosmos will merge with and into New Redwire (the “Second Merger”), with New Redwire being the surviving entity in the Second Merger. The transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement are referred to herein as the “Business Combination.” On July 6, 2021, GPAC filed with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the “SEC”) a registration statement on Form S-4 (No. 333-257710), which contained a preliminary prospectus and a preliminary proxy statement for the solicitation of proxies in connection with the extraordinary general meeting of GPAC shareholders (the “Extraordinary General Meeting”) to be held on September 1, 2021, for the purposes of voting, among other things, on matters necessary to complete the Business Combination. On August 11, 2021, the SEC declared the registration statement effective and on August 11, 2021, GPAC filed a definitive proxy statement/prospectus (the “Proxy Statement”). GPAC commenced mailing of the Proxy Statement on or about August 11, 2021.

On July 22, 2021, August 19, 2021 and August 24, 2021, respectively, GPAC received three demand letters from purported shareholders of GPAC claiming certain alleged material omissions in the Proxy Statement.

While GPAC believes that the disclosures set forth in the Proxy Statement comply fully with applicable law, to avoid nuisance, cost and distraction, and to preclude any efforts to delay the closing of the Business Combination, GPAC has determined to voluntarily supplement the Proxy Statement with the supplemental disclosures set forth below (the “Supplemental Disclosures”). Nothing in the Supplemental Disclosures shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity or materiality under applicable law of any of the disclosures set forth herein. To the contrary, GPAC specifically denies all allegations in the demand letters that any additional disclosure was or is required. GPAC believes these demand letters are without merit.

Supplemental Disclosures to the Proxy Statement

The following supplemental information should be read in conjunction with the Proxy Statement, which should be read in its entirety. All page references are to pages in the Proxy Statement, and terms used below, unless otherwise defined, have the meanings set forth in the Proxy Statement. Underlined text shows text being added to a referenced disclosure in the Proxy Statement.

The Proxy Statement is hereby amended as follows:

The following disclosure replaces the fourth full paragraph on page 117 of the Proxy Statement under the heading “Background to the Business Combination.”

In connection with its targeted search, GPAC:

- entered into non-disclosure agreements, none of which contained standstill or “don’t ask, don’t waive” provisions, with seven potential business combination targets and/or their owners, one of which was AE Industrial Partners (“AE”), the majority shareholder of Holdings;
- engaged in preliminary, high-level discussions of potential or illustrative business combination transactions with eight potential business combination targets or their representatives; and
- engaged in due diligence and discussion of valuation with four potential business combination targets or their representatives, one of which was Redwire.

The following disclosure replaces the seventh full paragraph on page 123 of the Proxy Statement under the heading “Background to the Business Combination.”

From and after March 5, 2021 until March 24, 2021, the parties continued to negotiate the Merger Agreement and the ancillary documents to be entered into in connection therewith, including the Sponsor Agreement, the Investor Rights Agreement, and the Proposed Governing Documents. The various drafts that were exchanged reflected the parties’ negotiations on, among other things, the consideration structure, interim operating covenants, post-closing governance matters, including scope of registration rights, the size of the Incentive Equity Plan and the ESPP, and other matters. In the context of negotiating the Investor Rights Agreement, the parties agreed that Jonathan Baliff would remain on the board of directors of New Redwire and that John Bolton would be appointed to the board of directors of New Redwire. Mr. Baliff is currently a director of GPAC and Mr. Bolton is currently a member of the GPAC advisory committee. The remainder of the GPAC Board, GPAC Advisory Committee and GPAC’s officers will no longer serve as directors, advisory committee members or officers, and will not otherwise be employees of New Redwire, upon consummation of the Business Combination. In addition, throughout this period, the GPAC Board and the board of directors of Redwire met regularly to evaluate and agree upon the key terms of the various drafts exchanged between the parties.
